DECLARATION WITH REGARD TO NON-ACCOMPANYING DEPENDENT WHO IS NOT EXAMINED

In my application for permanent residence in Canada, I have not included my or my Spouse's/common-law partner's dependent, _____ . I do not wish to have him/her examined for immigration purposes.

I am aware that section 117(9) (d) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations stipulate the following:

117. (9) No foreign national may be considered a member of the family class by virtue of their relationship to a sponsor if

(d) the sponsor previously made an application for permanent residence and became a permanent resident and, at the time of that application, the foreign national was a non-accompanying family member or a former spouse or former common-law partner of the sponsor and was not examined.

I therefore acknowledge that, since the above dependent is not being examined, I may not in the future sponsor him/her as long as the above section remains in force.
